

HOUSE IS POLLED ON A SILVER BILL

FORTY-SEVEN FOR AND FORTY-TWO AGAINST.

Butter Substitute Measure Laid Before Representatives Informally and a Showing of Strength Made—Vote in the Senate This Afternoon—Mr. Vilas the Speaker Yesterday.

Washington, Feb. 1.—3:30 p. m.—No vote has been taken yet on the bond silver bill. It will pass this afternoon, with five votes to spare. The Butler amendment to the bond silver bill was defeated 13 to 40. Yesterday's session was technically a continuance of the session of Thursday, as a recess was taken that night. The silver bond bill, therefore, had immediate right of way, with Mr. Vilas (dem.) of Wisconsin recognized to speak. "It will," said Mr. Vilas, "doubtless never be necessary to discuss this bill as it came from the house. With the exception of provision for emergency certificates—which ought to stand in the permanent statutes—the house bill contained nothing commendable; everything else was but mockery of the legislation demanded by our fiscal condition. And so again, as a year ago, partisanship or imbecility, or both, has stricken congress with paralysis, and the rescue of business prosperity from its recurring peril has been thrown upon the executive. It is almost as fortuitous as fortunate that an old statute has remained untouched during our financial madness which can again serve the turn, and, although in a clumsy way when considered with reference to existing conditions and suitable measures of relief, yet it shows God's pity and mercy are not wholly withdrawn from us.

"If," he continued, "any trusted agent in private affairs should so deny duty and abuse trust as congress did a year ago and now repeats, no judgment in their condemnation would be too severe. Over $16,000,000 in the public debt was then thrown away in the reckless that must now be sustained by the people for the same reason is probably no less, although the exact measure of it is not quite so clear. Then republican management was able to show pretense that but for the populists and free-silverites there might have been relief. It was not true then, and this bill has now unmasked the fact by denying under republican dictations the only remedy available to the increased mischief."

"Declaring that the bill, as it came from the house, was a mere sham and fraud, Senator Vilas proceeded to show that the Senate amendments made it worse than the original measure. The senator said he had hitherto concluded that it was the wisest policy to sit quiet and allow the silver advocates to do the talking, as they were in the habit of doing, at the ratio of about 16 to 1, but he had heard it asked why the opponents of free coinage did not justify their faith in debate. He then proceeded, at considerable length, to discuss the free-coinage provision of the pending bill, declaring that the financial distress and public misery of the last three years were the direct products of the efforts to force silver upon the country, and adding: "Our course to relief is a return to sound principles." He believed especially that every step of the fatal progress in error had been opposed to the cardinal doctrines on which the democratic party is based.

He divided the silver advocates into three classes: First, those who were interested in silver mining; second, heavy debtors; and, third, those who believe in the principle of bimetalism. Of the first class, he said that they were few of number, but wonderfully potential; of the second, that they might "deserve sympathy if they didn't shock it." The third class he regarded as honestly mistaken, and to them he addressed his argument.

"Bimetalism is," he said, "a high-sounding, splendid word, if only bimetalism, but alas, what is it, and where is it? Like dreams that wane before the half-shut eye or gay castles in the clouds that pass, forever fitting in the summer sky, always dancing before the vision, always something to be gained, but never realized, the glittering bauble has fitted on afar before the fatuous pursuit on which the public have so long been conducted, yet, always to disappear save in the pleasing speech of silver advocates, while the realities of gain could be matched by the other and mastering purpose." He declared that from the beginning practical bimetalism had never been proposed to congress. He declared that Senators Teller and Wolcott, as champions of silver, had based their contentions upon a protective foundation.

He contended that the silver-mine owners were largely responsible for the agitation for free silver, and after asserting that silver mining was confined to the western states, said the mines were owned by comparatively few people and largely by corporations, who, by the employment of labor, often make large profits on comparatively small outlay. That interest was intent to win, to secure the best price for silver.

He declared the people of the Rocky mountains to be subservient to the mine-holders. The senator traced the last legislation in the interest of silver to the theory of protection, which he characterized as vicious and wicked, and proceeded to review not only silver legislation, but silver production and silver coinage in the United States.

Referring to the claims of the debtor class, saying that at best they asked to have something taken by law from one class for another class, he claimed that a free-coinage law would be especially hard upon pensioners—an unspeakable and unparalleled outrage. Indeed, such a piece of legislation would be, to sum up, a genuine shame.

Mr. Vilas justified the course taken under the exigencies of the time, while Mr. Mitchell denominated the course of the bond purchasers in buying on the theory of silver payments and yet demanding and expecting gold payments as a "bunko game." He closed his speech shortly before 3 o'clock, and the skirmishing at once began as to fixing a time for voting on the bill.

The main feature of the agreement finally made was that the vote should be taken at 2 p. m. today, with Mr. Hill reserving the right of motions to indefinitely postpone, lay on the table or take up another bill before that hour. Mr. Bate (dem., Tenn.) then addressed the senate in support of the silver amendment. Mr. Pascoe (dem., Fla.) followed Mr. Bate, also in support of the amendment.

At the night session Mr. Palmer (ill.) gave notice of an amendment to the pending measure, declaring it to be the policy of the United States to maintain the parity between the gold and silver dollars, and to maintain the equal power of gold and silver in the markets and in the payment of debts. Mr. Caffery (La.) spoke in opposition to the silver amendment.

HEAVY BIDS MADE.

Large Subscriptions to the New Loan Coming In.

Washington, Feb. 1.—Nothing definite can be learned at the treasury department as to the number or amount of bids already received for the new bonds. As fast as received the bids are deposited in a safe, where they will remain until next Wednesday, when they will be opened and their contents announced. It is certain, however, that a large number of bids have been received and every mail brings considerable additions. As to amounts or prices offered, even the secretary of the treasury knows nothing, except in some few cases, where he has been privately advised by letter. There seems to be no doubt that the amount of the bids will exceed the $100,000,000 to be offered, and it is expected that the foreign offers will be considerably more than was expected when the loan was announced. The improved political situation abroad, it is believed, will contribute to this end.

The semi-official announcement that bidders who intend to pay for their bonds in foreign coin will be given the preference in making the awards is expected to stimulate foreign competition for the bonds. The thing most to be feared in connection with the sales, it is said at the treasury, is a possible combination by which a large percentage of the offers will be at uniformly low rates. Should this prove to be the case, there seems to be no doubt that Secretary Carlisle will not hesitate to reject all bids below what he regards fair both to the government and to the purchaser.

THE JANUARY DEFICIT.

Seven Months of the Fiscal Year Finds the Treasury Behind.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The forthcoming statement of the government receipts and expenditures for January will show the aggregate receipts to have been approximately $29,237,670, and the expenditures $32,696,830, leaving the deficit for the month about $3,459,160, and for the seven months of the present fiscal year about $18,853,867. The receipts from customs during the present month will amount to about $16,380,796; from internal revenue, $11,041,401, and from miscellaneous sources about $1,815,472. This is a decrease of about $1,000,000 in the receipts from customs as compared with January, 1895, and an increase of about $2,000,000 in the receipts from internal revenue. As compared with last month, there is an increase of over $4,000,000 in the receipts from customs and a decrease of nearly $1,750,000 in the receipts from internal revenue. The pension payments this month amount to about $9,980,000, a decrease from last month of about $1,386,000.

Will Censure Mr. Bayard.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The question of a censure of Ambassador Bayard for his two speeches will be again considered by the house committee on foreign affairs at a special meeting to-day. Since Thursday's meeting the Republican members of the committee have talked with the party colleagues in the house and a majority of them have agreed to support a resolution drawn by Mr. Cousins (Iowa) which censures the ambassador. The Democrats of the committee, under the leadership of ex-Chairman McCreary, will antagonize any resolution of censure, and even a general expression of disapproval of speeches by diplomatic officers.

William English Is Seriously Ill.

Indianapolis, Feb. 1.—The condition of William H. English is not so hopeful, although the patient is confident of recovery, and his attendants are not discouraged. A constant flood of inquiries is being received from abroad, testifying that his illness has aroused wide-spread interest.

House Transacts Routine Business.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The house Friday confined itself to routine business. The evening session was devoted to the consideration of private pension bills.

BRITAIN'S POSITION AT LAST STATED

LORD SALISBURY DEFINES HIS POLICY.

The Monroe Doctrine He Says Has His Hearty Endorsement—Poor Comfort for the Suffering Armenians—Sultan's Government Severely Criticized, But Words Are Not Backed.

London, Feb. 1.—The banquet of the Non-Conformist Unionist Association at the Hotel Metropole Friday night was the occasion for an address by the marquis of Salisbury, prime minister and secretary of state for foreign affairs. In the course of his remarks he said, with reference to Venezuela:

"I have been held up as the denouncer of the Monroe doctrine. As a matter of fact, although the Monroe doctrine is no part of international law, my dispatch to Mr. Olney, the secretary of state of the United States, supported it as a rule of policy in the strongest and most distinct terms. But when I stated in that dispatch, and reiterate now, that as a rule of policy we are the entire advocates of the Monroe doctrine we mean the Monroe doctrine as President Monroe understood it. In that sense you will not find any more convinced supporters than we are."

Lord Salisbury then turned abruptly to the Armenian question, and he reproached the religious communities with laboring under a mistake when they supposed that Great Britain had bound herself in honor to succor the Armenians, which means to go to war with the sultan in order to force him to govern the Armenians well. The Berlin treaty, Lord Salisbury said, merely bound the signatory powers that if the sultan promulgated certain reforms they would watch over the execution of those reforms—nothing more. He did not think any one could interpret that as an undertaking to go to extreme measures. As to the Cyprus convention, Lord Salisbury continued, it contains no trace of an undertaking to interfere in behalf of the subjects of the sultan. "I was concerned in the drafting of both of these conventions," Lord Salisbury said, "and nothing would have induced me to pledge my country to such a desperate undertaking."

Lord Salisbury then continued by saying: "Meantime, by spreading among the Turks the feeling that their dominion was threatened, these reforms have unfortunately led to the perpetration of horrors which can only be compared with the days of Genghis Khan and Tamerlane. I am aware that many influential people aver that this was done by the sultan and his government with set purpose. My own opinion is that the sultan's government is weak, wretched, impotent, and powerless; but it is a dream to imagine that he ordered the perpetration of those cruelties. In my judgment there is no ground for thinking so. It was race faction and creed faction driven to the highest point in the most corrupt and most horrible form which brought upon the wretched Armenians these terrible sufferings."

"If you ask why we have not interfered, I can only answer for Great Britain that we could have threatened what I may call annoyances in the seizing of customs here and there, but when you are dealing with the rising of a whole fanatical population with whom they have been at bitter enmity for ages and who are situated in mountains far removed from the seashore, you are deceiving yourselves if you imagine that Great Britain's arm, long as it is, could have done anything in mitigation. Nothing but a military usurpation could have done it, and Great Britain does not possess the power of military usurpation at that distance."

"Mr. Gladstone wrote a letter that Great Britain could cope with five or six sultans. That was a most ill-judged and rash observation. If the sultan would meet us on the open, undoubted we could cope with five or six sultans. But it is not worth arguing the possibility of Great Britain occupying these inaccessible provinces."

"I am not bound to answer the question why Europe did not interfere. I say confidentially that none of the powers wished to interfere, and I believe their view is that with patience the sultan's prestige, which is the only power left in the country, will ultimately re-establish order and allow industry and commerce to take their usual secure course. That is their view, and it is our duty to give the sultan time. It is not for me to pass judgment on that view, but no other remedy has been suggested. It is some encouragement to find that already some degrees of order is being restored. If you do not act with the great powers you must act against them and produce calamities far more awful and terrible than the Armenian atrocities."

In conclusion Lord Salisbury referred to the recent demonstrations in the colonies in the face of threatened foreign complications and said: "I care not how much we are isolated if we are united. An example has been set which will shed a beneficent light on the latest generations of Englishmen."

Lord Salisbury at the opening of his speech referred to the recent Transvaal crisis as throwing a lurid light upon what might happen if home rule were granted to Ireland. As soon as the Transvaal was in trouble, he pointed out, it applied to the foreign powers instead of Great Britain for support.

DUN'S TRADE REVIEW IS MORE FAVORABLE

IMPROVEMENT IN SITUATION EXPECTED.

Reports Say Business Is Still Halting, But Signs of More Confidence Appear—Failures for the Week Show An Increase Over Same Period Last Year.

New York, Feb. 1.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says:

Though business is still waiting, there are some signs of definite improvement. It is now believed the first payment for bonds will cause no further pressure, and the money markets are easier as respects loans on collateral, though the difficulty of making commercial loans still checks operations. Large maturities at the end of January, however, have been met more satisfactorily than was expected, and merchants and bankers report that the signs promise a good spring trade. No increase appears as yet in the demand for the principal products, unless for some forms of iron and steel, in which good contracts have been made this week, and uncertainty as to congressional action still affects both industries and commerce, but the increase in inquiry and the reports of dealers are deemed assurances of large trade coming whenever the uncertainty is over.

Signs of improvement in the iron and steel business are gratifying, even though they spring from combinations which have raised the price of coke and allotted the output of lake iron ore. Coke production has again been cut down 10,975 tons in a single week. Minor metals are strengthened a shade by speculation.

The cotton mills are discussing curtailment of production, as goods continue weak with an output largely exceeding distribution, though the week has brought considerably more inquiries and a larger spring trade is still hoped for.

Woolens are practically unchanged, as each passing week of open weather diminishes the prospect of profitable business, while jobbers, clothiers, and retailers have considerable stock of heavy goods remaining. Sales of wool at the three chief markets, 9,945,630 pounds domestic in January, against 13,604,915 last year, but 14,074,900 foreign, against 9,551,550 last year, have diminished of late, manufacturers buying for only present needs.

Wheat has again advanced about 3 cents for cash, but only 1½ cents for May, although Atlantic exports are a little larger than a year ago, and for four weeks, flour included, have been 8,403,765 bushels, against 7,372,584 last year. Neither this fact nor the continued excess of western receipts for the week, 2,331,912 bushels, against 1,226,012 last year, explains an advance for which the basis or the excuse must be sought in foreign reports. Corn has ceased to "sympathize" and records little advance.

Cotton is a shade lower than a week ago, notwithstanding strong arguments by Neill and others, but receipts from planters go on at nearly the same rate. Spinners' takings fall behind last year, as before, and the marketing of goods does not support the brilliant estimates of increased consumption this year. Exports in January have been 50 per cent less, spinners' takings 35 per cent less and receipts from plantations 39 per cent less than last year, and receipts have been larger, but spinners' takings and exports both smaller than in 1892-3, from a crop of 6,700,000 bales. Failures this week have been 404 in the United States, against 354 last year, and seventy in Canada, against fifty-four last year.

Talk of Fusion in Nebraska.

Omaha, Neb., Feb. 1.—The very latest move of importance in Nebraska politics is an effort manifest all over the state to induce Populists to vote on a proposition to narrow the Omaha platform. It is proposed to include but two planks in the new platform—one favoring free silver coinage and the other demanding the initiative and referendum. It is reported that if the Populists succeed in trimming their platform of all objectionable features save 16 to 1 coinage the Democrats have agreed to fuse with them on the presidential ticket.

Tornado in Australia.

A large number of persons were drowned.

SETBACK FOR THE STATE.

Evidence in the Kellar Trial Favors the Defendants.

Terre Haute, Ind., Feb. 1.—The state met with its first setback in the Kellar-Shanks murder trial Friday, when one of its witnesses testified that at the time he, with others, examined the Kellar premises, after the funeral of Clara Shanks, they found no evidence of murder. They arrived at the conclusion that the stain on Dan Kellar's trousers, which is held to be from Clara's blood, was a paint stain. A committee was selected at the cemetery to make the investigation, and Witness Myers was one of the committee. There was talk of lynching, and the committee reported to the crowd that there was no evidence of murder. It was at a subsequent examination of the house that the trousers and pieces of the stained floor were taken away, and the stains submitted to expert analysis.

MUST BE MARKED.

New Treasury Regulations in Regard to Oleomargarine.

Washington, Feb. 1.—Treasury regulations relating to the packing, exportation, and exposure to sale of oleomargarine go into effect to-day and will be vigorously enforced hereafter by the internal revenue bureau officials. After to-day no manufacturer of oleomargarine will be allowed to ship any of the article marked other than in conformity with law and regulations. Retail dealers will be given a reasonable time, possibly a few days at the most, to dispose of the stock they have on hand marked with the former devices, and then they will also be brought up to a rigid observance of the law and regulations.

Abbott, of McDonnellsville; Samuel R. of Cincinnati; Dudley Phillips, of West Union, and George Iden, of Newark, and a second one for the same offense against W. C. Gear, of Wyandotte county. It is generally believed also that it will indict several high city officials here for fraud in a large city contract.

Working for Hinshaw.

Indianapolis, Feb. 1.—A detective for two weeks has been trying to work up additional evidence in the William M. Hinshaw wife murder case, and claims to have discovered evidence both in this city and Hendricks county which will materially aid the convicted preacher in his efforts to secure a new trial. Mr. Hinshaw's friends are more firmly convinced than ever that he was wrongfully convicted.

Standard Oil to Reorganize.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 1.—A paper in this city publishes a report that the Standard Oil Company is to be reorganized as a corporation with a capital of $200,000,000. This is just twice the capitalization of the original trust. Having been declared an illegal combination as at present organized, it has been decided to form a corporation into which will be more firmly combined its field production, pipe lines and refineries.

Hopes the Nations Will Agree.

Glasgow, Feb. 1.—At a meeting of the Monetary Reform association here a letter was read from Mr. A. J. Friday's Cabinet Meeting.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The meeting of the cabinet Friday lasted for two and a half hours, and much of the time was occupied in discussing the expediency of acceding to the resolution of congress relative to Armenia and communicating with the governments of Europe on the subject. It is surmised that no decision has been actually reached.

Bolin Arrested Again.

Omaha, Feb. 1.—The matter of ex-City Treasurer Bolin's defalcation took a sensational turn yesterday, when he was rearrested on the charge of embezzling $105,000, and simultaneously it was discovered that his bond for $800,000, as treasurer of the school board, was missing.

AGREEMENT KNOCKED OUT.

Break in Pittsburg Leaves Everything Unsettled Again.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 1.—The settlement of all the troubles of coal miners which was announced with a flourish a few weeks since was knocked out Friday by the New York and Cleveland Gas Coal company. This served notice on the operators' association it was not satisfied "true uniformity" has been established, and that it will not be bound by the agreement after Feb. 1.

The company further says, as if it never had any intention of conforming to the agreement, that even if the "true uniformity" were established it could deal with its own miners and get work done at less money than others would be compelled to pay. The result of this break will be that the miners of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois will find themselves where they were months ago in efforts for better wages. It leaves no uniform price here on which wages elsewhere can be based.

TO MEET THE CUBANS.

Gen. Marin Determined to Force Them to a Battle.

Havana, Feb. 1.—General Marin, the acting captain-general of the Spanish forces here, who left this city Thursday with his staff and a number of prominent merchants and clerks familiar with the province of Pinar del Rio, who will act as scouts, reached San Antonio de los Baños and made his headquarters there Thursday night. He has with him a detachment of cavalry, and hopes to strengthen it considerably before engaging Gomez, who is still understood to be trying to effect a junction with the insurgent forces under Maceo. Wire communication with the front is interrupted. Spanish officers here say that an important engagement will be fought before General Marin returns to Havana.

He murdered his father and mother and Daniel McKercher on a farm near Brownsville, Ore., Nov. 13 last. He confessed his guilt.

MEN FRUIT TUMBLES IN PRICE.
Eggs Can Be Bought Cheaper Than Is Usual in February.

The warm spell sent eggs down the scale in price. Some local grocers are wearing in consequence.

eggs," remarked a local dealer, "and I have disposed of just half of them, while I expected that February I would see me nearly cleaned out.
With fresh eggs coming into the market and selling at sixteen and eight-mysteries of the grocery trade."

40 YEARS THE STANDARD

GOLDEN ROD INJURES HORSES.

Veterinary Surgeons Say It Has Poisonous Qualities.

Golden rod, the autumn flower which foreign tourists traveling in America regard with admiration, and which some of the states have adopted as a state flower, is getting into bad odor as a delectable of pasture lots where horses feed, and perhaps the time will come when its botanical name, solidago, derived from a word that signifies
"to make whole," will not prevent the plant from being added to the list of noxious weeds, along with the sow thistle, snapdragon, burdock, Canada thistle, Russian thistle, cocklebur, yellow dock and sweet clover. Last summer
State Veterinarian Scott, of this state caused some commotion in the scientific world and perhaps a little incredulity in horse circles, by stating that golden rod as a fodder for grazing horses was the direct cause of a disease which has been prevalent among horses for years in northwestern Wisconsin and which has been considered a contagious disease.
In a recent number of the American Veterinary Review, this paragraph occurs, showing the golden rod is not as innocent a plant as it has hitherto been considered by the general public.
"Dr. Rusby, professor of botany at the College of Pharmacy and American Veterinary college, of New York, endorses the opinion of Dr. J.
L. Scott, state veterinarian of Wisconsin, as to the poisonous qualities of golden rod. Horses ought not to be allowed to eat it.

GOLD CHARM FOR PROUDFOOT.

Settling Superintendent Handsomely Remembered by His Caledonian Friends.

W. R. Proudfoot was a happy man and proud when he went home last night. A roomful of his Scotch friends had gathered around him in the Caledonian rooms and smiled their endorsement as President Alexander Galbraith presented him with a beautiful watch charm. The charm bore on one side the royal Scottish coat of arms with the word "Mizpah" beneath it, while on the reverse side was a wreath of Scotch thistles in raised old gold, while in the center was the following inscription: "Presented to W.
R. Proudfoot by the Rock County Caledonian Society, January 31, 1896."

In his presentation speech President Galbraith referred happily to the hearty interest which Mr. Proudfoot had always taken in the society's welfare, and hoped that he would always continue to cherish a warm regard for the friends he had made in Janesville.
Mr. Proudfoot has been most faithful in his devotion to the interests of the Caledonian society and the society could lose no one who would be missed more. He takes with him the best wishes of its members for his future prosperity.

TOBACCO MEN ARE HOPEFUL

They Think That Brighter Days Are Not Far Away.

Tobacco men think prospects are a trifle more cheerful. The Leaf says
of the Janesville market:

There is a slightly increased call for old goods for retailing an increased business for the future. Among the sales reported are 100 cases 94 sold by A. N. Jones, 60 cases old goods sold by Rudolph, Haviland & Sons; 50 cases 93 sold by Samuel Grunoy and a few smaller lots by other dealers.
During the past two weeks J. A.
Decker has been buying all the new filers he could get for one cent a pound and has contracted for large amounts. These are said to be for H. W. Child of Edgerton. It is also said that others are buying filers, both old and new, but they will not be paid until a few weeks of '95
are being picked up at low prices.
W. O. Dean, of Canton, Ill., has been riding with L. B. Cates and is looking up the desirable lots of '96. Some three or four others are looking after
'95 but do not find much that meets their fancy. Local shipments are fairly liberal.

BEAT HIS GIRL WIFE WITH FIST AND CLUB

MARTIN HILD SAID TO BE VERY VIOLENT.

His Wife, Who Married When But
Fifteen, Calls On Superintendent
S. B. Kenyon For Aid—Starving
Family On Galena Street Relieved
By the County.

John Houston brought his eighteen year old daughter to Superintendent S. B. Kenyon today and asked that her injuries receive legal redress. Her husband, Martin Hild, he declared had beaten her shamefully.

There was a big black and blue spot on the girl's head, and one hand was discolored as if it had been struck with a club.

"My husband beats me with a stick and with his fists," Mrs. Hild declared.

Wife When But Fifteen
She seemed even younger than eighteen, being slight and below medium height, but had a two year old child in her lap, and had been married, she said, about three years.

Houston lives in Plymouth and his daughter has gone home to live with him. They wanted to know if Superintendent Kenyon had any means of compelling Hild to help in his wife's support.

Family Suffering For Food.

Another starving family on Galena street was relieved by Poor Master Kenyon today. He found nine chilren in the family. The oldest boy and father were both out of work and unable to get any.

MANY WERE PLEASED BY "1492"

Janesville Play Goers Were Delighted by the Rice Burlesque.

One of the hits of the season was "1492" at the Myers last night—one of the hits of the season and one of the big houses of the season. Richard Harlow's impersonation of Isabella, queen of Spain, Berrie Bruehill in character parts, and Ross Snow's Ferdinand of Aragon, were greeted with the most enthusiastic applause.
From first to last the piece was thoroughly up to date, and was received with the greatest manifestations of pleasure.

RAILROAD BUSINESS REVIVING.

Eighteen Specials Went Through on the C. & N. W. Last Night.

With the approach of spring railroad business is beginning to show
new life. Eighteen specials passed through the city on the Chicago &
Northwestern last night.

"As soon as the month of February is ushered in, business is sure to revive," remarked a local official this morning, "for besides the shipments of grain and live stock, large consignments of machinery are daily being shipped from the large Chicago and eastern factories to the wheat fields of the west. Although no extra crews have been added as yet, they will be needed soon."

DULIN'S BRAVERY NOT REWARDED.

He Will Let Government Mail Take Care of Itself Hereafter.

William Dulin, the railroad man, believes that in the future he will attend strictly to his own affairs, and let those needing help apply elsewhere.
He was standing on the railroad track between the Northwestern and the St. Paul depots when the Rockford passenger pulled in. The mail clerk threw a heavy bag of mail out and it struck on the Northwestern track. A Northwestern freight was close at hand and Dulin grabbed the bag and jumped, but says that all he received was a threat from the mail clerk to have him arrested for unlawfully handling the United States mail.

KATE PHALLAMONT IN DEMAND

Seven Thousand Dollars Offered by Eastern Men Through John Kelly

A strong effort is being made by eastern parties to get the well known trotting horse Kate Phallamont, who received her training on the Janesville track. Word was received in the city yesterday that John Kelly formerly of this city had been sent to Detroit with a view to buying her,
the price being in the neighborhood of $7,000. Kate Phallamont is still owned by Samuel West, of Juda, but is now in training in Detroit with a record of 124 which she established in the fourth heat of a race at Cleveland.

FREE COOKING SCHOOL MAY COME.

Women Are Deeply Interested in a Farm
Institute Feature.

If Janesville women wish it, a free cooking school will be made a feature of the farmers' institute here in March.
Mrs. Jamison, the well known expert, will conduct it in a separate hall two afternoons. She is now in the northern part of the state. There is a demand for her presence wherever institutes are held, but only ten cities can be favored. Letters addressed to G. S. McKarrow, superintendent of farm institutes, Madison, will do much toward insuring a Janesville date.

WON PRIZES BY THEIR DINNERS

Two Janesville Young Ladies Arrange
Menus of High Merit

Janesville has at least two young ladies who are expert cooks, theoretically as well as practically. The Chicago Record offered a prize to the young lady who could send in the best menu suitable for five persons, the cost of the meal not to exceed $1.25.
Miss Jessie De Forest of this city, took second prize, while Miss Shirlee De Forest won first prize in a similar test.

RUNAWAY COUPLE WERE MARKED

Every Body at the St. Paul Depot Picked
Them Out Once

When the Rockford passenger pulled in this morning on the St. Paul road, word was passed about the depot that another runaway couple were aboard. In the rear coach sat a couple who looked half frightened to death and continually enquired of the brakeman if they would ever reach Milwaukee.

W. thence to Janesville and finally here, with a freight bill of $71 attached to it, which is considerable more than the coal is worth. He has refused the car.

THE SURGEON'S KNIFE.

Once Believed to Be the Only Cure for Piles and Rectal Diseases.

A Better Way Now Discovered, Which Cures Every Form of Piles Without Pain or Inconvenience.

Many people suffer the pain, annoyance and often serious results from piles for years, and after trying the many lotions, salves, ointments and so called cures without cure or relief, give up the hope of a final cure, rather than submit to the intense pain and danger to life which a surgical operation involves.

Happily all this suffering is no longer necessary, since the discovery of the Pyramid Pile Cure; a remedy which is approved by the medical profession, as being absolutely safe, free from any trace of opiates, narcotic or mineral poisons and which may be depended upon as a certain cure (not merely relief) in any form of Piles, whether itching, blind, bleeding or protruding. Some of the hundreds of cures recently made are little short of marvelous, as a perusal of the following will demonstrate.

Major Dean, of Columbus, Ohio, says: I wish to add to the number of certificates as to the benefits derived from the Pyramid Pile Cure. I suffered from Piles for forty years and from itching Piles for twenty years, and two boxes of the Pyramid Pile Cure has effectively cured me.

Dr. J. W. Morgan, Leonardville, Kan., writes: I have used a box of Pyramid Pile Cure and received more benefit and relief than from any remedy I had used in the past twenty years.

James Jamerson, Dubuque, Iowa, says: I suffered from Piles for six years; have just used the Pyramid Pile Cure and am a well man.

Mrs. M. C. Hinkley, 601 Mississippi St., Indianapolis, Ind., says: Have been a sufferer from the pain and annoyance of Piles for fifteen years, the Pyramid Pile Cure and Pyramid Pills gave me immediate relief and in a short time a complete cure.

The Pyramid Pile Cure may be found at druggists at 50 cts. and $1.00 per package. A book on cause and cure of Piles will be sent by mail, by addressing the Pyramid Drug Co., Albion, Mich.

Milton's republican caucus will be held Tuesday, February 11 at 2 p. m., in P. of H. hall, Milton Junction. Rev. William Walker may not rally from the effect of his accident. Mrs. Carlton Crumb is suffering from a broken wrist. Rev. E. M. Dunn is seriously ill. Rev. E. L. Eaton's lecture in the college course had for a subject, "The Bible and the Stars." Mr. Eaton is not less famed for his sweet singing, and at the close of the lecture, by request sang several songs. Mrs. A. D. Burdick, of Walworth, is better. Mrs. Mary B. McEwan, of the college class of '85, has a position in the Ashland schools. Mrs. James Bond is home from the west accompanied by her son and her sister, Miss Browning. Mrs. Della Estell is home from Alfred Center, N. Y. L. E. Crosby of Cedar Falls, Ia., is visiting at W. H. Wilbur's. W. P. Clark and daughter, Miss Bessie attended the camp-fire at Edgerton. Henry J. Walker of Chicago, visited Milton relatives this week. B. Richardson returned to Chicago yesterday and begun another year in the employ of Gage Bros. & Co. Mrs. David Brown of Janesville, visited her parents Tuesday. Miss Anna Crumb is visiting her sister, Dr. Gertrude Crumb at Berlin. G. B. Fetherston has shipped three car loads of live stock already this week. Elijah Hudson has moved onto a farm in Lima. Wallace Reynolds of Doon, Ia., is visiting his grandfather, Nelson Reynolds. Deceased leaves an aged husband and three daughters, Mrs. Dr. E. J. Crandall and Misses Kate and Grace Clark. The funeral will be held this (Saturday) afternoon from the house.

OLD RESIDENT OF LIMA DEAD

The music of Truman & Hunt's buzz saw is heard in this vicinity nearly every day. William Truman has decided to leave this village, and go to Georgia. The ladies of the U. B. church will give a box social in Reed & Anderson's hall next Monday evening. Boxes containing supper for two will be served at 15 cents each. A good program is being prepared and an admission fee of 10 cents will be charged. Let them have a full house. Martin Gould and wife spent Tuesday visiting the Blind Institute at Janesville. The ladies sewing circle spent the afternoon pleasantly with Mrs. H. H. Jones last Wednesday. Chas. Brown had wood sawers at his place Thursday. Keesh sr. of Whitewater, was a caller in this place last Wednesday in the interest of Dr. Shoop of Racine. A flock of wild geese about forty in number, flew south over this village the 31st. HARD TIMES AT JOHNSTOWN.

Farmers Can't Spend Much Money on Janesville—Personal Notes.

Johnstown Center, Jan. 31.—The concert at the "Hotel Kehoe" on Thursday evening was not very largely attended, probably owing to the hard times, as two years ago the farmers had no grain to sell, last year they had so much they wouldn't sell, so you see their pocket-books must look as if an elephant had stepped on them. David Carter is suffering from a severe cold. Henry McGowan, who has been visiting his parents, has returned to his home in Clear Lake, Iowa. Mrs. Carter and family of Minnesota, are guests of Silas Locke's. Ernest Walker has gone to work for James Fetherston for a few weeks. Mr. Burdick, who has been a guest of Mr. Randall, has returned to his home at Clear Lake, Iowa. Rev. George E. Young of Andrew, Iowa, will hold evangelistic services in the United Presbyterian church of Rock Prairie from Jan. 27 to February 2 inclusive. All are cordially invited to attend. Those who want grinding done should call on the proprietor of "The Fairview Creamery," who is prepared to grind all kinds of small grain at five cents a hundred and crush corn in the ear at six cents a hundred.

One minute, Cough Cure is rightly named. It affords instant relief from suffering from afflicted with a severe cough or cold. It acts on the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs and never fails to give immediate relief. C. D. Stevens.

"Heart-matching" will be one of the novelties at the Royal Neighbors' social Thursday evening. Admission to entertainment ten cents, and supper fifteen cents, with the promise of well-matched hearts included.

Electric Street Franchise in Oshkosh Expires—Rev. Morrill Riot Cases in Portage Dismissed—Saloonkeepers in Neillville Hang a Spy in Effigy.

There seems to have been a diversion in the current of freight from the west. Much of it has come through Janesville, but a train composed of three Northern Pacific cars loaded with silks passed through Fond du Lac yesterday, over the Wisconsin Central, en route from the Pacific coast to New York. The three cars were estimated to contain $1,500,000 worth of goods. The train had the right of way over the entire distance to be made. Each car contained a detail of armed guards, and the doors were locked from both sides.

Oshkosh Franchise Expires

Oshkosh has declared the electric street railway franchise forfeited because of delay. Tillotson has had two years and there is nothing to show for it.

Portage Riot Cases Dismissed

On motion of District Attorney Coles all the riot cases growing out of Rev. Morrill Twine's crusade in Portage, were dismissed. The district attorney stated, however, that the dismissals were not asked on account of a lack of evidence.

The Celebrated English Doctors of The London Medical Institute, 413 Grand Avenue, Milwaukee.

The object of this free service is to become quickly acquainted with the sick, also to demonstrate the superior excellence of their methods of treating all diseases of a chronic or long standing nature. The doctors feel assured that the grateful endorsement of the many they relieve and cure will give them, during their future visits, an extended practice that will amply repay for this great outlay of time and money. Although they treat all diseases of a chronic long standing, obscure or difficult nature and cure many so-called incurable diseases, they wish it distinctly understood that, if after a thorough examination, your case is found to be incurable, they will frankly tell you so and reserve the right to reject such cases.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

1552—Edward Coke, famous as lord chief justice, born;

died 1633.

1737—John Philip Kemble, actor, brother of Mrs. Siddons, born in Lancashire;

died 1823.

1801—T. C. Cram, famous CRUIKSHANK.

American missionary in Hawaii and writer on that country, born at Killingworth, Conn.; died in Hawaii 1882.

1871—Commodore Matthew Fontaine Maury, veteran of the Confederate and of the United States navies and author of "The Physical Geography of the Sea," died at Lexington, Va.; born 1804.

1878—George Cruikshank, celebrated English caricaturist, died in London; born 1799.

1893—United States flag raised over the town hall at Honolulu. On Jan. 14 Queen Liliuokalani attempted to promulgate a revolutionary constitution. On the 17th a committee of safety formed a provisional government, calling on the United States authorities for protection. On Feb. 1 Minister Stevens proclaimed a protectorate.

LOOK FOUR YEARS AHEAD

There has been no doubt for some time that ex-President Harrison would be a candidate before the St. Louis convention. The declarations of the Indiana republican committee reveals

no secret.

Nobody believes or has believed that the ex-president will engage in any unseemly scramble for nomination.

He has always, so far as the country knows, carefully observed the political proprieties and the position which he has filled puts him under especially stringent bonds to maintain this good record. The office of president confers a patent of nobility which imposes on the man who has held it peculiarly rigid obligations to avoid political trickery himself in seeking the office again, and to discountenance

it in his supporters. Undoubtedly the ex-president's conduct in this exigency

will satisfactorily meet all these demands.

His friends, if they be true friends of the republican party, however, should take into account Mr. Harrison's weaknesses before they urge his name seriously. McKinley, Reed or Allison could poll many votes in every state this year that Mr. Harrison could not. Mr. Harrison would be elected—any good republican of presidential status would—but would four years of Harrison

do as much for the country and therefore for republicanism

as four years of McKinley or four years of Reed? The question should be considered carefully before delegates to the June convention are named.

MUST READ AND WRITE.

There is a bill pending in congress to exclude all immigrants between fourteen and sixty years of age who can not read and write, and Castle

Garden figures furnish a practical and forcible argument in favor of such legislation.

The bill does not require that the immigrant shall know a word of English, but it demands that he shall have sufficient knowledge of his own language to lift

him above the level of mental density that precludes the chance of success in any reasonable degree, and carries with it the danger of increasing the number of paupers

and criminals. At the present time, or according to the last census, there are 6,324,702 persons over ten years of age in the United States who can not read and write—13.3 per cent of the total population. This army of illiteracy is the source of most of the poverty and crime of the country. It is the element out of which mobs are evolved, and by which elections are frequently carried. To add to it is to invite further corruption and violence

and an increase of about $2,000,000 in the receipts from internal revenue.

WISCONSIN'S DUTCH BOOKS.

Much interest is manifested down

east in the Tank collection of books

in the Dutch language owned by the Wisconsin Historical Society. The collection, as was stated some time ago, contains a number of books in which there is contemporary testimony

as to the extent of the Dutch claims in Guiana to which England succeeded in 1803. A translator and draughtsman have been extracting

this information for the Venezuela commission.

SHE ASKS A DIVORCE FOR FEAR OF SHAME

MRS. EMMA W. RUSCH'S MOTHER TESTIFIES.

Husband Was In the Habit of Boasting of His Evil Deeds, She Declares—And She Worried Lest He Should Come to Grief—E. D. Miller Wins.

Mrs. Emma W. Rusch's suit for divorce against Fred Rusch will be tried by Judge Fish of Walworth county and will not come before the court for two weeks. Mrs. T. W. App, the mother of the plaintiff, having sold her Janesville hotel property preparatory to going east was examined yesterday afternoon. E. M. Hyzer and H. S. Sloan appeared for the defendant and Sutherland & Nolan for the plaintiff.

Mrs. App testified that her son-in-law swore and called her daughter all sorts of bad names, and that he made it a point to let them know he had stolen potatoes, lumber and brass lamps from the railroad company when he was working as a conductor, and that the facts so preyed upon the mind of Mrs. App and her daughter that they have had little rest since for fear of the shame they would have to bear when their son-in-law was arrested for these acts.

A general denial will be entered by the defendant. E. D. Miller was winner in the action brought by his head cook, M. Rossi, in Justice Prihard's court. A judgment in his favor for $20.07 costs, was rendered by Justice Prihard this afternoon. Rossi sued to recover wages, which he claimed were due him.

SOLDIERS RELIEF COMMISSION
GIVES AID.

Thirty-Two Cases of Destitution Found and Relief Supplied—Only Five Men Included In This Number—Last Complete Canvass Was Made Two Years Ago.

Members of the Rock County Soldiers' Relief commission, have just finished a thorough canvass of the city. They find thirty-two cases that need their attention.

The relief commission is composed of Simon Smith, of Beloit; A. C. Gray, of Evansville; and W. G. Palmer, of this city, and their canvass developed many cases of want, for the last complete investigation was made two years ago.

"Of the thirty-two families that applied for aid we found not one but was in actual want" remarked W. G. Palmer. "The majority of these applicants are widows who receive but $3 a month pension. This is their sole support and they have a hard time in getting along."

Only five out of the thirty cases were men, and most of the people now on the rolls have been receiving constant attention from the board since 1887.

LITTLE GOLD COMES TO THE POSTOFFICE

POSTMASTER WILSON MAKES SOME FIGURES.

He Takes In About $180 a Month of the Yellow Metal, a Large Portion of Which Comes From Foreigners Who Are Sending Money to Friends.

Pursuant to instructions sent out by the postmaster-general to all postmasters of first and second class offices some time ago, Postmaster A. O. Wilson has been keeping track of the amount of gold received at this office in the course of business.

The amount is about $180 a month—hardly enough to keep the gold reserve up to $100,000,000 when Wall street is acting snappy.

The idea in collecting figures from the post offices, is to see whether it will relieve the government materially to have all gold expressed to the sub treasury instead of being paid to banks.

A year ago the banks were paying the Janesville office considerable gold but most of the gold the office receives now is from foreigners who keep a little store of coin outside the banks and frequently wish to send money to friends or relatives at a distance.

DR. GREENE'S NERVURA

Cured Gen. Buzzell, Department Commander of New Hampshire G. A. R.

The Famous Commander Writes to the People to Use Dr. Greene's Nervura. It Cured Him. It Will Cure You.

GEN. CHARLES E. BUZZELL.

Gen. Charles E. Buzzell, of Lakeport, N. H., Department Commander of New Hampshire G. A. R., has something of interest to say to the people in regard to the remarkable curative powers of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. Few men are more widely known than General Buzzell, who is street commissioner of Lakeport, and the most prominent builder and contractor in the state. The general says:—

"I was terribly run down in health and as a result of overwork, became nervous, weak, tired and without my old-time energy and ambition. I grew so fearfully nervous that I could not rest nor sleep nights, but would be obliged to get up and walk about several times each night. I would get tired and nervous so easily and quickly that it became almost impossible for me to attend to my business. At the same time I had most severe and distressing backache.

"I took Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and it helped me right away. My nerves are so strengthened and invigorated that the nervousness left me and I could again sleep soundly nights and wake mornings refreshed and feeling strong and vigorous. The backache is completely cured. I am now perfectly well and better able than ever to attend to my business. I have recommended this wonderful remedy to several others and it has cured them all. I urge people to use it because I know them well."

Gen. Buzzell's case was like thousands of others.

People from overwork, strain upon brain and nerve or other cause, break down in health, feel that they are physically weak and that their nerve strength, energy and power are greatly diminished. Just so sure as night follows day will prostration and debility, the wreck of nerves, brain and body, follow, if a cure is not immediately sought.

Neglect is the fatal thing. Never allow the symptoms—the tired feeling, the weakened nerves, the loss of power of endurance, the lack of snap and energy—to drift you into total loss of health. Take Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy now, and it will cure you as it cured Gen. Buzzell, as it has cured thousands upon thousands of others. It is the great curer of diseases, the great strengthener of nerves, the great builder up of blood, the great invigorator of brain and body. It will make you well.

Do not class this most valuable remedy with patent medicines. It is a physician's prescription, and its discoverer, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City, has the largest and most successful practice in the world in nervous and chronic diseases, and can be consulted free of charge, personally or by letter.

GRIZZLY AND SILVER TIP.

Three Types in California of Immense Strength and Size.

The grizzly bears found all through the canyons of the Rocky and Coast mountains and spurs of the Sierra Nevada range seldom descend from lofty altitudes, remarks San Francisco Call. The bruits of the east and the bruits of the west are almost totally different animals. The Ursa Majors of the Sierras are monstrous in size, endowed with ugly dispositions and prodigious strength. There are at least three distinct types of the family in California and Lower California—namely, the grizzly, brown and black bear. Besides these there are also gray bears, cinnamon bears, and the Sierra grayback.

Cinnamon is simply a cross between the brown and black bears, and the mighty silver tip is neither more nor less than a mongrel of the brown or grizzly, partaking strongly of the nature of the two, but particularly of the latter. All the members of the species intermarry, and the silver tip is the king of the family. This big family, springing from the grizzly and the brown bear, combines all the ferocity and tough strength of the former, with the agility and stubbornness of the latter, each distinctive trait being more prominent in him and possessed to a greater degree than by the very animals from whom he borrows them.

Leaves from the Palm Tree.

It is doubtful if one man in a hundred goes to church praying that his preacher may have boldness to declare the truth to him. Wherever there is suffering, somebody's sin has caused it. Every man is a hypocrite who prays one way and lives another. The yoke of Christ is easy; the way of the transgressor is hard. The devil agrees with the man who says he can't see any use in being religious. We cannot have right views about redemption as long as we have wrong views about sin. No sermon is dull that cuts the conscience. The devil is a warm friend of the man who is mean to his wife. The most of God's work is not done by people who have the most talents. There are too many people who think the way to serve God is to do it with the mouth. —Ram's Horn.

LITTLE GIRL PREACHER.

This 10-Year-Old Child Delivers Three Sermons in One Day.

The little girl preacher, Claretta No-rah Avery, of whom there has been so much talk in the up-country, is now in Charleston and has during the last week been preaching at the Morris Street Baptist church before large audiences, says the Charleston (S. C.) News and Courier. Yesterday the little girl preached morning, afternoon and evening and the crowds were larger than before.

At the afternoon service the church was crowded and seats were placed in the aisles near the platform, and a large number of white ladies were present. The platform was occupied by the pastor, the Rev. J. L. Dart; the elders, Mrs. Avery and Claretta Avery, the girl preacher. The child, for she is but 10 years old and looks younger, sat in a large chair to the right and scanned with interest the audience. She has large, pretty eyes, good features and a dark olive complexion. Sitting in the chair her heelless shoes were two inches from the floor. She was tastefully dressed in black and wore a soft felt hat. Mr. Dart, in introducing the little preacher, said that she had been suffering with a bad cold for several days but was, nevertheless, anxious to essay this, her second service that day.

Claretta Avery came to the improvised reading desk (the regular one having been temporarily displaced on account of its height), read a portion of the second chapter of Matthew and made a prayer, simple yet complete—a prayer for strength and keener sight. "Oh, Lord," said this childish petitioner, in closing, "even what we fail to ask for do not fail to give us." Her voice was low and tremulous at first but when, after a hymn by the congregation she read out the subject of her discourse it was strangely resonant and clear. Her gestures were good and her manner very earnest.

Claretta Avery was met by a reporter at the parsonage yesterday evening. She is accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Avery, and they have been staying with Mr. and Mrs. Dart while here. Mrs. Avery said that Claretta was her only child. Her husband died last spring. Their home is in Washington, D. C., but they have been in this state some time. When asked about the child's education or training, the mother said: "It is the gift of the Almighty God. Claretta has been preaching for nearly two years now and she is just 10 years old. We had taught her to read, but beyond that she has had no advantages." Claretta is a perfectly artless child at home, has a lot of dolls and is running in and out of the house all the time, singing, laughing, and playing with other children. Her command of language, knowledge of the Bible and elocutionary powers are certainly remarkable.

Rather Embarrassing.

A well-known Washington minister told a good story to a representative of the Star: "In a country circuit in Virginia," he said, "it was the custom to wear week-day shoes and stockings to church because the dust would get them soiled. Sunday footgear was carried along in the hands of the wearers and when the church was reached a change was effected. One of the ablest ministers in the conference preached at the church, and, being told of the custom and having some distance to walk from where he was being entertained, adopted the same method. One of the leading characteristics of the minister was his absent mindedness, and, thrusting his hosiery in his pocket, he mounted the pulpit. When in the middle of his discourse he drew out what he thought was his handkerchief, and, after wiping his brow, laid the article down on the pulpit, when, to his dismay and the amusement of the congregation, he discovered that it was a pair of extra socks that he had worn to church. He completed his sermon, but it was the last time he ever conformed to that particular custom of the country."

Colored Snow and Hail.

Storms in which red, yellow and orange colored snows fell were recorded as long ago as the sixth century. Humboldt mentions a hailstorm which once occurred in Palermo, in which every hailstone was as red as a globe of frozen blood. On March 14, 1813, there was a hailstorm in Tuscany in which the individual stones were each of a bright yellow color. In 1808 at Carniola, Germany, they had a fall of crimson snow which was nearly five feet in depth. Snow of a brick-red hue fell in Italy in 1816, and in the Tyrol in 1847. In some sections of Iceland snow seldom falls to any considerable depth without being composed of alternate layers of frozen crystals of different colors. Sir John Ross mentions Arctic banks of red snow which are so well known to explorers that they are called the "crimson cliffs."
